

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 16, 2009

Michael Traum

775-356-3352

Public Relations Manager

Press Release E-mail

SOCIETY OF SEVEN, WITH AMERICAN IDOL'S JASMINE TRIAS OFFERS CLASSIC 'VEGAS' SOUND AT JOHN ASCUAGA'S NUGGET

Sparks/Reno, Nev. – See classic Nevada- style entertainment delivered with polish and professionalism when the always- entertaining Society of Seven visits the Celebrity Showroom November 27- 28 at John Ascuaga's Nugget.

The SOS, featuring American Idol Season Three contestant Jasmine Trias, dazzles audiences with their outstanding choreography; costumes and music, from Broadway show tunes to old and new pop hits. The group continues to bring new meaning to the word "variety" with enough energy to set the stage ablaze.

The group plays literally every instrument in sight - horns, keyboards and guitars. Every member of SOS is an accomplished technician on several musical instruments. Each multi- talented member contributes his own special genius to the ensemble and the result is an explosion of musical energy certain to entertain audiences from around the world.

Comprised of Hawaii 's finest performers with an eclectic mix of talents, Society of Seven has earned a reputation as one of the most entertaining and energetic shows on the Las Vegas Strip. Tony Ruivivar contributes to vocals and guitar. Bert Sagum is the comedic leader of the group. Huku Low plays the bass and horns. Vince Mendoza is the group's drummer, with impressive vocals. Roy Guerzo is the keyboardist, and Wayne Wakai rounds out the groups with an impressive vocal range.

Society of Seven plays November 27- 28 at 8 p.m. in the Celebrity Showroom at John Ascuaga's Nugget. Tickets are $35, and are available by calling (800) 648- 1177 or (775) 356- 3300 or by visiting janugget.com. Dinner and show packages are available. "Do the Nugget Tonight!"